"As for God, his way is perfect: The Lord's word is flawless; he shields all who take refuge in him." - Psalm 18:30

Dear Lord,

Thank you that your Holy Spirit helps us to discern and understand your Word. Give us a hunger to feed our souls on Scripture every day, as you have said, "...man shall not live by bread alone but on every Word that comes from the mouth of God." (Matthew 4:4).

We thank you that that living according to Scripture gives us a firm foundation for this life and the life to come because "your word, Lord, is eternal; it stands firm in the heavens" (Psalm 119:89). Thank you that your Word is a lamp for my feet and a light for my path so that I can walk securely. (Psalm 119:105).

Amen

Hear my prayer, O LORD; let my cry for help come to you. Do not hide your face from me when I am in distress. Turn your ear to me; when I call, answer me quickly. My days are like the evening shadow; I wither away like grass. But you, O LORD, sit enthroned forever; your renown endures through all generations. You will arise and have compassion on Zion, for it is time to show favour to her; the appointed time has come. For the LORD will rebuild Zion and appear in his glory. He will respond to the prayer of the destitute; he will not despise their plea. Let this be written for a future generation, that a people not yet created may praise the LORD: "The LORD looked down from his sanctuary on high, from heaven he viewed the earth, to hear the groans of the prisoners and release those condemned to death." (Psalm 102, verses 1-2, 11-13, 16-20)

WEDNESDAY: Please pray for the family and church fellowship of Pastor Cung Biak Hum who was murdered by the Burmese military after trying to stop village burnings. (Source: CSW)

THURSDAY: Please pray for the 2,000 patients receiving support and therapy after being wounded in the recent war in Nagorno-Karabakh (Artsakh) and for the churches there serving the people. (Source: HART)

And all week, continue to pray that there will be peace in all the countries affected by war and violence, for the peace and prosperity of Jerusalem and for all the refugees forced from their homes (Psalm 71.1-2 says 'In you, LORD, I have taken refuge; let me never be put to shame. In your righteousness, rescue me and deliver me; turn your ear to me and save me..')
