Fri	Linda Ngoma

Lord Jesus Christ,
We remember today how you came to our world and found no welcome;
how, from the very beginning you were shut out, no room for you even in the inn.
Forgive us that we are sometimes guilty of shutting you out in turn, failing to make room for you in so many areas of our lives.
Despite our words of faith and commitment, we turn our back on you when we would rather not face your challenge.
Forgive us, and help us to make room for you, not just during Christmas but always.
Teach us to give you not merely a token place in our hearts, but to put you at the very centre of our lives.
Just as the Wise Men came baring gifts, would we know to give your Good News as a Gift to all.
Amen
