Thanking God for his faithfulness

In this month of January perhaps we should remind ourselves of God's faithfulness during prayer initiatives in 2021 for COP26 and Thy Kingdom Come; and of all the good things he has done for us as individuals and as a Church.

Take time to remember.

Our God is good and his love does endure forever, His faithfulness continues through all generations (Psalm 100:5)

Lets be blessed to cry out to the Lord this day and the next.

Prayers for our persecuted Brothers and Sister

MONDAY: Please pray for our Christian brothers & sisters in Eritrea & in Ethiopia, that will be an end to war and an end to hunger.

TUESDAY: Please pray for Christians in the north of Burkina Faso, where churches have been forced to close and now meet in secret.

WEDNESDAY: Please pray for our Afghan Christian brothers & sisters, those in exile and those who remain, that He will bless & strengthen them and have His hand over them.

THURSDAY: Please pray for Babak Hosseinzadeh, Behnam Akhlaghi and their 115 compatriots who have been jailed in Iran for believing in Jesus.

FRIDAY: Please pray for Pastor Nandu Nathaniel and his wife Savita Singh, Christian leaders arrested in India where conversion to Christianity is often violently opposed.

SATURDAY: Please pray for all Christians in Nigeria, that their schools & services will not be targeted and they might live in peace & security.

SUNDAY: Please pray for the release of Leah Shibusu who is being imprisoned because she refuses to renounce her faith in Jesus and comfort for her mother as she awaits the return of her brave daughter and for freedom for all the children across Nigeria taken from their schools at gunpoint and for an end to kidnappings & persecution.
